VINTAGE NOTES - 2022:

2022 could be a vintage for the ages. It was a rollercoaster ride of a year that began with April snow which progressed into wet, cooler than average conditions delaying the start to the growing season. However, mildly warm temperatures arrived and lasted well into October affording the grapes a longer hang-time with even ripening. The result was beautifully balanced fruit with low-sugar content, complex aromas, and an elegant profile.
